6. No dwelling shall be erected on any lot nearer than seven (7) feet to any side lot line.
7. No lot shall be subdivided into smaller lots, except a part of a lot may be added to an adjoining tract for additional building and yard area. The further subdivision of any lots described herein, or any portion thereof, shall not grant the right to erect or maintain any dwelling on an area of less than 6,250 square feet. A subdivision of any lot described herein, from the originally platted, shall not grant to the owners any right to violate any of the restrictions contained in any of these covenants.
8. Ownership of a lot or lots in Cottage Ridge First Addition shall automatically invoke membership in a non-profit owners' corporation under Chapter 504, Code of Iowa, named Cottage Hill/Cottage Ridge Homeowners Association, Inc., which shall maintain the detention ponds and detention basin system located in drainage easements shown on the Final Plat for Cottage Ridge First Addition and on other property in adjacent subdivisions and shall maintain trails and other property owned by the Association for common use. Ownership shall be subject to the applicable terms of the Articles of Incorporation and/or Bylaws of the corporation, including provision as therein made for assessments against all of such lots and owners for the purpose of landscaping and maintaining the detention ponds, detention basin system, trails and other property owned by the Association for common use.

C. ASSESSMENTS

1. Each owner of a lot or lots in Cottage Ridge First Addition is deemed to covenant by acceptance of such owner's deed or real estate contract for such lot or lots, whether or not it shall be so expressed in the deed or real estate contract, to pay assessments for landscaping and maintenance of the detention ponds, detention basin system, trails and other property owned by the Association for common use. Expenses to be covered by the assessments shall include, but are not limited to, real estate taxes, special assessments, insurance premiums, repair and upkeep expenses associated with the grounds, equipment, and any additional expenses required to keep the detention ponds, detention basin system and trails in good condition. Lots owned by Cottage Ridge, L.L.C. and/or Jim Sattler Construction Company, Inc. and its successors and assigns shall not be subject to assessment or lien for expenses of the Association.

2. Assessments shall be pro rated on the basis of the number of lots owned.

3. From the date of the recording of these Covenants through January 1, 2007, the owners of each lot shall pay an annual assessment of $150.00. Thereafter the Association shall set the monthly assessment based upon the annualized expenses. All assessments shall be made payable to the Association, which shall provide each owner with a copy of the accounting showing all assessment receipts and disbursement of the assessment funds.

4. The assessments for each lot shall be equal and assessments shall not be based upon the size of any lot within the Addition. No owner of any lot may exempt himself or herself from liability or assessment by waiver of the use or enjoyment of the common operation and maintenance of the detention ponds, detention basin system, or other property owned by the Association for common use. The assessments shall be due on the first day of each and every month and delinquent on the 5th day of each and every month. Any assessments not paid within five days after the due date shall be deemed to be in default and shall bear interest from the due date at the rate of 15% per annum; however, if that interest rate is in excess of the highest legal rate permissible under Iowa law, the interest rate shall be reduced to the highest legal rate permissible under Iowa law.

5. If the owner of any lot fails or refuses to pay any assessment when due, the assessment shall constitute a lien on the lot against which the assessment has not been paid and shall be a personal liability of the owners of that lot. The lien shall be established and perfected by the owner of any lot who is not in default by filing a Notice of Lien signed by such lot owner and recorded in the office of the Recorder of Linn County, Iowa. A copy of the Notice of Lien shall be mailed by certified mail, return receipt requested by the owner that signed the Notice of Lien to those owners who are in default. The lien may be enforced in the same manner as a mechanic's lien is enforced under the Iowa Code with all expenses of collection, including reasonable attorneys fees and court costs being charged to the owners named in the Notice of Lien. Such lien shall remain a lien on the respective lot until paid in full and shall be released by an affidavit filed in the office of the Recorder of Linn County, Iowa by the owner or his or her successor in interest, who files the Notice of Lien. No owner or owners of any lot may waive or otherwise escape liability for assessments provided that these Covenants by nonuse or abandonment of his or her lot.

6. Notwithstanding any other provisions of these Covenants, assessment liens provided in these Covenants shall be subject to and subordinate to the lien of any first mortgage or first deed of trust encumbering the lot within the Addition. A sale or transfer of any lot within the Addition shall not affect the assessment lien. However, a sale or transfer of a lot pursuant to a mortgage foreclosure or any proceedings in lieu of such foreclosure shall extinguish an assessment lien for all assessments that become due prior to such sale or transfer of the lot. No sale or transfer of a lot shall relieve such lot from liability for any assessments thereafter becoming due or from the lien of such assessments.

7. Upon closing of each transaction whereby a lot is purchased from Developer, there shall be due and payable from the owner to Developer an initial working capital contribution of Two Hundred Fifty Dollars ($250.00) in order that there shall be immediately available working capital funds to apply to the initial interim or annual or any other current expense budget. Upon such closing, the owner of the lot shall thereafter become liable for and pay the balance of all assessments previously made as the same accrue. It is understood that Developer shall not be liable for the working capital contribution herein mentioned.

D. DURATION. These covenants are to run with the land and shall be binding on all parties and on all persons claiming under them until January 1, 2026, at which time said covenants shall be automatically extended for successive periods of ten (10) years unless amended in whole or in part as hereinafter provided. These covenants may be amended at any time by the vote of three-fourths (3/4) of the owners of lots at a meeting called by any owner for that purpose. Each lot shall have one vote at any such meeting.

E. REMEDIES FOR VIOLATION OF COVENANTS. If the owner of such lots, or any of them, or their heirs or assigns shall violate any of the covenants, conditions, restrictions, reservations and servitudes herein set out, it shall be lawful for any other person benefitted by these Restrictive Covenants, to prosecute any proceedings at Law or in Equity against the person or persons violating any such covenants, and either to prevent him or her from so doing, or to recover damages for such violation, or both, including recovery for reasonable attorney fees for the Plaintiff's attorney, and cost of said proceedings. The failure to promptly enforce any of the covenants, conditions, restrictions, reservations and servitudes shall not bar their enforcement.

The invalidation of any one of these covenants by judgment or court order shall in no way affect any of the provisions which shall remain in full force and effect.

F. MODIFICATION. The record owners in fee simple of the single-family residences in the Addition may revoke, modify, amend or supplement in whole or in part any or all of the Covenants and conditions contained in this Declaration and may release the Real Estate from the Covenants, but only at the following time and in the following manner:

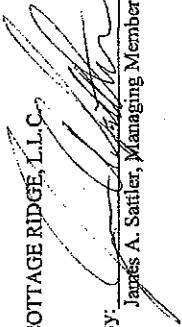

1. Any such change or changes may be made effective at any time from the date of recording of this Declaration if the record owners in fee simple of all of the lots in the Addition consent.
2. Any such consents shall be effective only if expressed in a written instrument or instruments executed and acknowledged by each of the consenting owners and recorded in the Office of the Recorder of Linn County, Iowa. A recordable certificate by an accredited abstractor, title guaranty company doing business in Linn County, Iowa, or a Linn County attorney, as to the record ownership of the Real Estate shall be deemed conclusive evidence with regard to compliance with the provisions of this section.

G. SUBORDINATION. All Covenants, liens and other provisions set forth in this Declaration shall be subject to and subordinate to all mortgages or deed of trust in the nature of a mortgage now or hereafter executed, encumbering any of the Real Estate; and none of the Covenants, liens or other provisions shall supersede or in any way reduce the security or affect the validity of any such mortgage or deed of trust in the nature of a mortgage. However, if any such property is acquired in lieu of foreclosure or sold under the foreclosure of any mortgage or under the provisions of any deed of trust in the nature of a mortgage, or any judicial sale, any purchaser at such sale, his, her or its grantees, heirs, personal representatives, successors or assigns shall hold any and all property so purchased or acquired subject to all of the Covenants, liens or other provisions of this Declaration.

H. INVALIDATION. The invalidation of any one of these Covenants by judgment or court order shall in no way affect any of the provisions which shall remain in full force and effect.

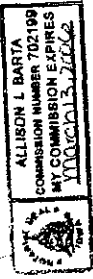

I. NOTICE. A written or printed notice, deposited in the United States Post Office, postage prepaid, and addressed to any owner at his or her last known address, shall be sufficient prior notice to such owner wherever notices are required in this Declaration.

Signed this 15 day of December, 2005.
